With a mind for business and a heart for service, Heather brings passion and expertise to every cause and charity she touches. Heather holds a BA in Interdisciplinary Studies and a Master's in Education with Non-Profit Administration. Her education, along with her heart for service and years of event and fund development experience, creates the perfect leader as Director of Events & Project Management for Studio4forty nationwide and Director of Development at the Boys & Girls Clubs of Kern County. And lead she does, on the phone and on the ground with charity partners – personally having helped 250 events in over 100 different cities raise over $30 million dollars. Heather's investment in the community is only a small example of her commitment to helping Kern County and beyond become a better place.
